Описание:

The project supports the Republic of Moldova in developing its National Mobility Strategy 2023-2030, ensuring alignment with national development goals, the EU Eastern Neighbourhood Policy, and EU regional and bilateral programs for connectivity and mobility. It involves a comprehensive analysis of Moldova's transport infrastructure and services, providing strategic guidance and actionable recommendations to the Government of Moldova. The initiative aims to enhance policy development, improve mobility planning, and strengthen Moldova's transport sector in line with European connectivity standards.
