Project description:

The Action aims to strengthen civil society to participate more effectively and actively in the protection of human rights, and to mobilize citizens and represent their interests, especially at the local level. It is foreseen that level of sustainability and resilience of civil society organizations will raise through the project and therefore contribute to further democratization and development of civil society through financial and professional support to the stabilization and further organizational and program development of CSOs.

Youth capacities in entrepreneurship will be enhanced by the project through tailor made income generation assistance complemented with provision of required trainings.

Expected results:

- Op 1. At least 10 local CSOs increased their capacities in regard to provision of support for youth entrepreneurship
- Op 2. 200 young persons started/developed their own businesses through start-up support consisting of in-kind grants and training packages
