Project description:

Supporting Independent Media and Reliable Information in Moldova (SIMR) is a 24-months project designed to consolidate the proficiency of independent Moldovan journalists and media's sustainable business models. Through delivering tailored capacity building trainings on fact-checking and investigative reporting, the project team aims at increasing the production of quality content countering disinformation.

Concomitantly, a grant support scheme is available for media outlets on: (i) advancing digitalization and digital security, (ii) covering legal assistance and (iii) teambuilding activities.

Expected results:

1. 80% of supported media outlets and journalists countering disinformation and fake news and promoting access to reliable information;
2. 80% of supported media outlets and journalists having built their resilience and financial sustainability.
