Project description:

The overall objective of the "Civic engagement for youth and women empowerment" project is to increase gender equality and youth inclusion in Moldova. The project seeks to increase the influence of civil society organisations in the design, implementation and monitoring of EU accession negotiations and policies related to gender equality and youth inclusion at national and regional level.

Expected results:

- 1.1 Increased opportunities for monitoring and policy dialogue between Civil Society Organisations and relevant public authorities on gender equality and youth inclusion issues;
- 1.2 Increased capacities of women's and youth Civil Society Organisations in the design and development of advocacy strategies, constituency engagement and public policy analyses;
- 1.3. Increased mobilisation of women and youth associations in implementing social accountability tools, community engagement plans and knowledge-sharing initiatives.
