Project description:

The overall objective of the project “Increase the role of civil society in improving agri-rural policies” is aiming at establishing the sustainable partnerships between national and regional CSOs and due to this to increase the number and quality of organizations participation in monitoring and implementation of National Strategy for Agriculture and Rural Development.

The project will lead to improved knowledge and skills of project beneficiaries along with formation of a lucrative framework for the policy dialogue between sector stakeholders. The aspiration is to create a long-term positive effect on civil society involvement in monitoring and implementation of agri-rural policies. Also, it will aim to establish a fruitful communication on permanent base between policy makers and civil society actors; it will contribute to increasing awareness of farmers and rural entrepreneurs on the importance of participating, fostering the democracy and accountability of the government.
